Find three quotations that illustrate Darcy's increasing attraction to Elizabeth (include page numbers.)

- a. "(Narrator) ...Elizabeth could not help observing as she turned over some music books that lay on the [piano-forte], how frequently Mr. Darcy's eyes were fixed on her."
- b. "(Narrator) ...Darcy had never been so bewitched by any woman as he was by her. He really believed, that were it not for the inferiority of her connections, he should be in some danger."
- c. "(Elizabeth) 'I have therefore made up my mind to tell you [(Mr. Darcy)], that I do not want to dance a reel at all—and now despise me if you dare.' (Mr. Darcy) 'Indeed I do not dare.'"

Chapters 11 & 12

Find two quotations that show Darcy's attempts to repress his feelings for Elizabeth (include page numbers.)

- a. "(Narrator) To Mr. Darcy it was welcome intelligence—Elizabeth had been at Netherfield long enough. She attracted him more than he liked—and Miss Bingley was uncivil to her, and more teasing than usual to himself."
- b. "(Narrator) Steady to his purpose, [Mr. Darcy] scarcely spoke ten words to her through the whole of Saturday, and though they were at one time left by themselves for half an hour, he adhered most conscientiously to his book, and would not even look at her."

In 2-3 sentences, describe Darcy's attraction to Elizabeth.

Darcy, though initially only attracted to Elizabeth for her looks, begins to realize more of her distinctive features. As this is the case, he begins to pay more and more attention to Elizabeth, to a point where he must restrain himself.

In 2-3 sentences, explain Darcy's motives for trying to not feel or show any feelings for Elizabeth.

Darcy fears that Elizabeth would pick up on his admiration of her, in which his behavior would then be Elizabeth's deciding factor for her either confirming or denying this assumed affection. As this is the case, he makes sure to
