

Pride and Prejudice      Chapters 24-27      Name: Daniel Aguilar
Describe what each of the following characters specifically does to disappoint Elizabeth and explain why she is upset by their actions. (2-4 sentences for each response)

Charlotte Lucas:

Charlotte marries Mr. Collins, whom Elizabeth regards as "unaccountable." Mr. Collins is exceedingly adverse to Elizabeth, as evidenced by her outburst against their engagement.

Mr. Bingley:

Mr. Bingley, Elizabeth thinks, is just another young man who falls in love with a gorgeous girl and quickly forgets about her. Elizabeth despises seeing Jane, her favorite sister, in such a state as a result of Mr. Bingley's hasty abandonment.

Mr. Bennet:

Mr. Bennet mocks Jane's situation, which upsets Elizabeth, escalated as Jane is her favorite sister. Mr. Bennet is supposed to be the family's leader, guiding them through difficult times, yet he does the exact opposite.

Mr. Wickham:

Mr. Wickham begins to pay more attention to another woman than Elizabeth near the end of Chapter 26. Mr. Wickham's interest in this other woman is piqued by said woman's unexpected gain of ten thousand pounds, which he seems to prefer to the characteristics he noticed in Elizabeth.

Why is Elizabeth so fond of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner? In detail, explain how they are different from the other adults of their generation. (4-5 sentences)
Because of their sensibility, direction, and concern for Elizabeth's ideas, Elizabeth has formed a fancy to her relatives Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner. Mr. Gardiner is proven to be highly intelligent and practical, which Elizabeth admires as a gentleman because she is also quite intelligent. Mrs. Gardiner gives Elizabeth advise that considers her thoughts rather than dismissing them in favor of inconsiderate ideas and responses.
